Executive Summary of Substantive Changes

The list below highlights changes made to all Regulations and Definitions for FY 2017.

- Revised the “Defaulted Loan or Refund Due” sections of each regulation to distinguish between the resolution of a default status for Federal loans and Georgia loans. Further defined the process for resolving Georgia loan defaults.
- Revised the definition of “Immediate Family” to include a student’s “Legal Guardian” and provided a definition for legal guardians. This enables a student to qualify for an exception in the event of their legal guardian’s death or serious illness.
- Added a definition for “Attempted-Hours Checkpoint” to be consistent with the other checkpoints, which were already defined.
- Defined “Default” and “Delinquency,” which had been used throughout the regulations without being previously defined.
- Defined “Post Baccalaureate Coursework” to clarify classes for which students are ineligible to receive funds in certain programs.

Georgia National Guard Service Cancelable Loan
FY 2017 Regulations
Executive Summary of Substantive Changes

The list below highlights the changes to the Georgia National Guard Service Cancelable Loan Program (GNG SCL) Regulations for FY 2017.

- Reorganized and reworded program section in its entirety for consistency with regulatory organization and language in other code sections that evolved while GNG SCL was inactive.
- Eliminated the language that prohibited GNG SCL recipients from concurrently receiving HOPE Scholarship or HOPE Grant funds. (HB 1072).
- Clarified that the SCL may be cancelable immediately upon completion of service obligation by a student before the student graduates from a participating postsecondary institution, so long as the student maintains a postsecondary GPA of at least 2.0 for each award term. GNG SCL is distinguished from other service cancelable loan programs by the ability of GNG recipients to simultaneously fulfill the service obligations of their loans while enrolled in school, as opposed to an obligation to be fulfilled at some point after graduation.

Realizing Educational Achievement Can Happen Scholarship Program
FY 2017 Regulations
Executive Summary of Substantive Changes

The list below highlights the changes to the Realizing Educational Achievement Can Happen Scholarship Program (REACH) Regulations for FY 2017.

- Created REACH Connections Scholars:
 - REACH Students chose in coordination with the Division of Family and Children Services.

- All funds are paid by GSFA and/or REACH Foundation GA, there is no local fundraising requirement.
- REACH Connections Scholars do not lose eligibility if they move to a school system which does not participate in REACH.
- Mentoring standards, adapted from national standards focusing on mentor screening, training, matching, and monitoring, have been identified and participating school systems will be required to comply with these standards.
- Attendance requirements:
 - A REACH Scholar will be placed on probation if he/she has 5 excused/unexcused absences in any one term. While on probation, the Scholar may be removed from the program if he/she has an additional unexcused absence or more than 3 excused absences.
- Discipline/behavior requirements:
 - A REACH Scholar will be placed on probation if he/she receives more than one in-school suspension and immediately upon any out of school suspension. While on probation, the Scholar may be removed from the program if he/she has an additional suspension (either in-school or out of school).
- Academic requirements:
 - A REACH Scholar will be placed on probation if his/her grade point average falls below a 2.5 GPA. While on probation, the Scholar will be subject to additional academic coaching and may be removed from the program if he/she is unable to increase his/her grade point average to a 2.5 GPA.
