

Conflicting Information Scenarios
Finding Type	Conflict Scenario Examples	Resolution Guidance
Academic Transcript Missing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student reports prior attendance at another postsecondary institution on Admissions Application (including out of state institutions, foreign institutions, etc.) • Any transcript in the student's file indicates transfer credits from another institution • FAFSA indicates a loan balance, and they are newly enrolled at current institution • CHECS • Study Abroad 	Any of the scenarios indicate the necessity to obtain copies of transcripts from all previously attended postsecondary institutions.
CHECS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CHEC record missing term(s), courses, grades, incorrect grades, as indicated on the student's transcript(s) • Incorrect information reported to CHECS by previous institution 	Any of the scenarios indicate the necessity to correct the student's CHECS record by updating according to student's transcript(s).
Citizenship	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • FAFSA or any other application indicates an eligible non-citizen status • Admissions application indicates student was born outside the U.S. • Prior attendance at a foreign secondary or postsecondary institution • "C" code on FAFSA if student reported to be a citizen 	Because State Programs require the student to have an eligible non-citizen status (as defined by Federal Title IV Regulations) for a required time period as of the first day of classes of the school term for which the State scholarship or grant is sought, documentation of the student's eligible non-citizen status and when it began must be collected. Examples of documentation include but are not limited to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Permanent Resident Card (I-551) • Conditional Permanent Resident Card (I-551C) • Arrival-Departure Record (I-94) with designations of, 1) Refugee, or 2) Asylum Granted, or 3) Parolee. • Consecutive year FAFSAs

Conflicting Information Scenarios
Finding Type	Conflict Scenario Examples	Resolution Guidance
Residency	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student attended or graduated from a non-Georgia high school • If chosen for verification, student was claimed on the Federal tax return of a parent with non-Georgia address or any schedules or attachments associated with the tax return indicates affiliation (personal or business) with another state • Conflicting Georgia resident since date – Example: student reported on FAFSA resident of Georgia prior to 01/01/2001, but reports on GSFAPPS resident since 06/30/2003 • Non-Georgia driver's license on FAFSA or any other documentation • Recent transcript from non-Georgia institution if a non-traditional student 	The following documents may be used to support Georgia residency, but is not necessarily all inclusive: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Location of employment • Location of voter registration • Location of dwelling, including home purchase or tax payments • State to which income taxes were filed and paid • Address on Federal and State income tax returns • State in which automobile is registered • State of driver's license • State in which business or professional license is issued • Location of banking accounts • Address from utility bills No single document can support residency, nor is there a specific number of documents needed. However, documentation must be sufficient enough to resolve the conflict.